Dear Cllr Nigel,

Thank you for your e-mail.

Having had the opportunity to look into this further, I can confirm that this section of Foryd Road (referred to in my letter in May) is not included in the TRO notice.

This is because that Denbighshire County Council's original intention was to retain the A548 section from Rhyl to the county border, as 30 mph. Therefore, our proposal was to ensure that the cross-border 30 mph continued to the junction of Wellington Road, which would then change to 20mph as part of the national roll out (see attached a plan of the original proposal). However, Denbighshire County Council have now changed their proposal and have decided not to put forward this road section as an exception. This has therefore rendered CCBC's proposal for the exception of the short section along Foryd Road unnecessary.

I trust that the above is explanatory.

RegardsGeraint

Subject: 20MPH

Dear Geraint,

The first communication from yourself stated that the A548 Foryd Road from Towyn to the boarder with Denbighshire would remain 30MPH, the recent legal notification of roads remaining 30mph distributed by Ceri Williams and the online map does now not show Foryd Road as remaining 30MPH.

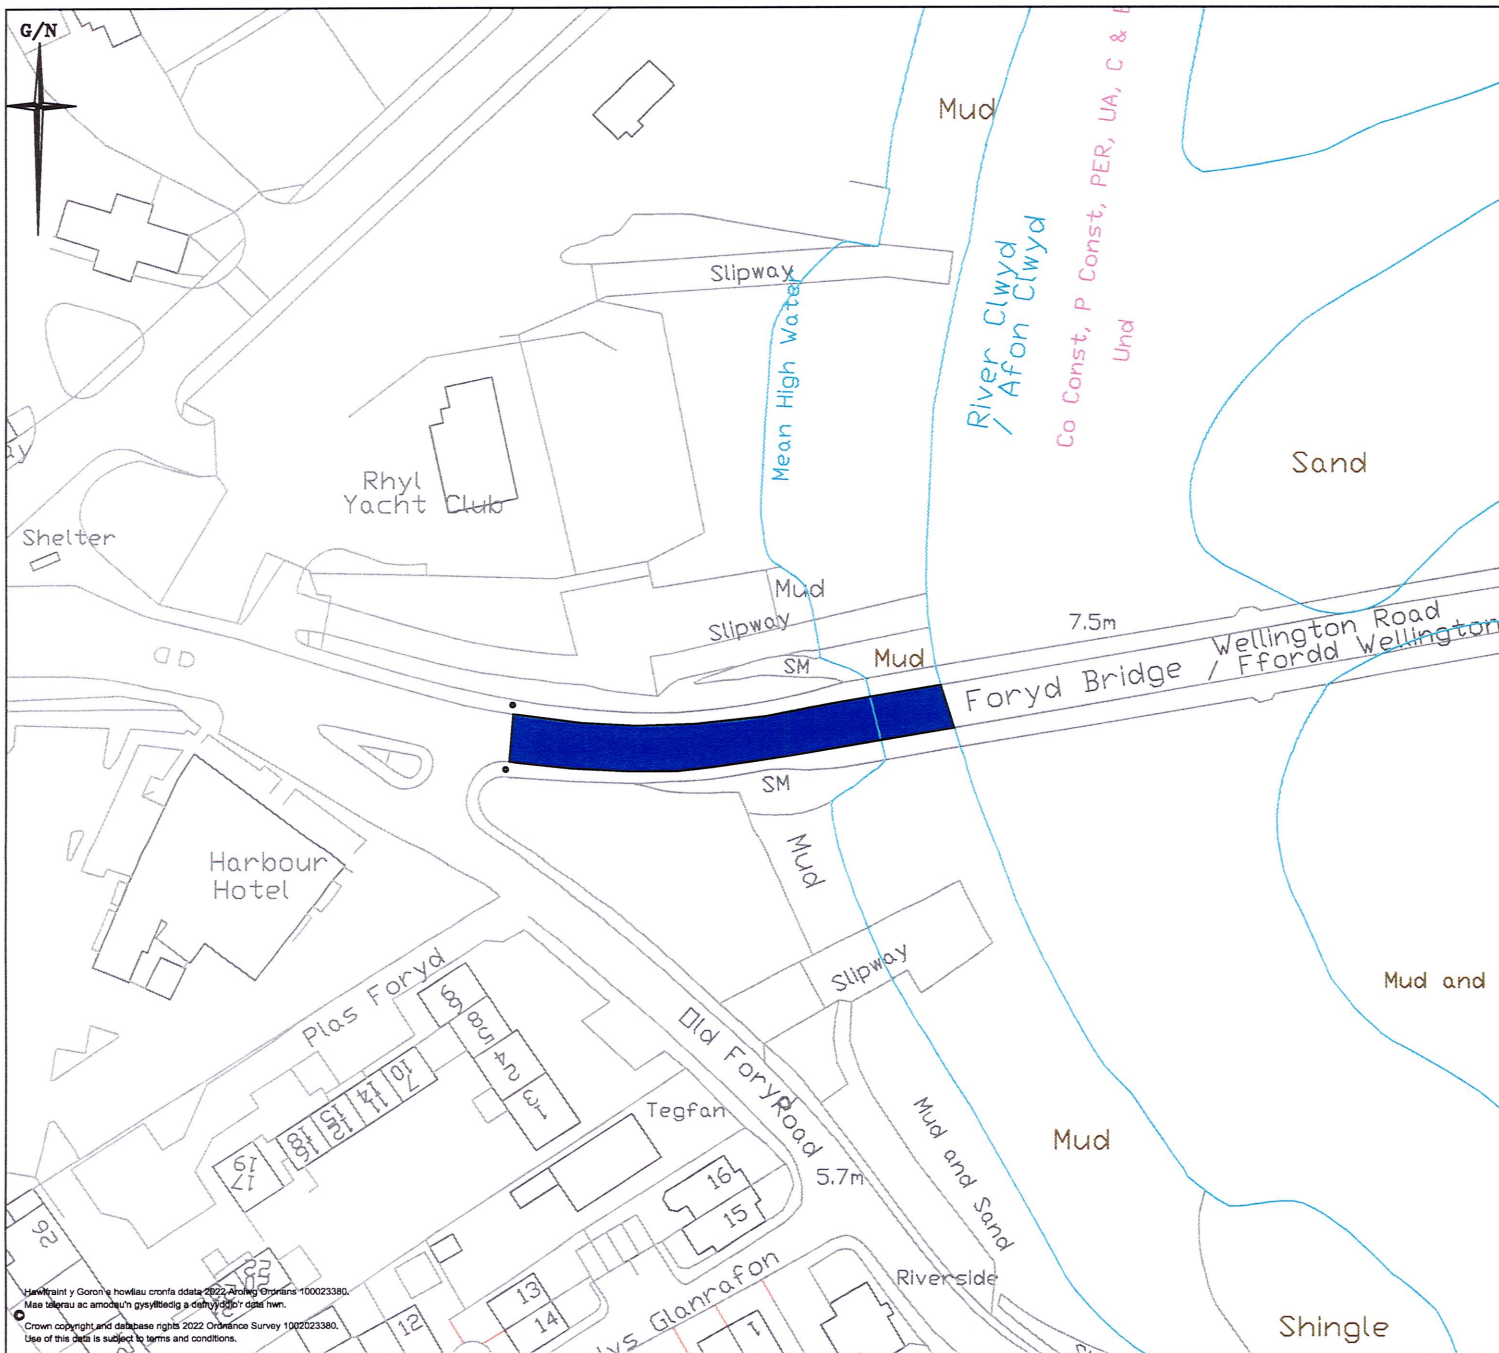

I had a site meeting today with Dylan Jones who was confused as he thought it was remaining 30MPH but also could not find it listed, I therefore seek clarification before the legal notices have been published as it looks like this section of the A548 has been missed.

Regards,

Nigel.
